Dear families,

I am writing to inform you of a change to the school day from September 2020. We have decided to move to 6 x 50 minutes lessons a day and a one-week timetable. Other changes include assembly being moved to the morning, an early lunch and an earlier end of the school day. School will start as normal at 8.40. This change will allow us to work even more collaboratively with the other King Edward VI schools, which will offer many more opportunities for our students. It also allows for a far more creative curriculum for all key stages offering breadth and depth of choice and opportunities for all. The new structure of the day is detailed below.

The library will be open until 16.00 for private supervised study if required. If you have any questions, as always please feel free to contact us.

Yours sincerely
